

3.—To show that the Summer has been finer than some people think, out of nine various Parties held in the Rectory Garden, all have been held on fine, most on beautiful days, with one exception.

4.—On Sunday, October 8th, our prayers and thoughts, and our money offerings, will be for the work of the Church Overseas through the S.P.G. We have had good collections lately: on this Sunday let it be really good and generous; notes and silver should be the rule; a few threepences from the children, but surely no copper.

5.—The quarterly service in church of our branch of the Mothers' Union will be on Wednesday, October 11th, 3 p.m. In the M.U. as in so many other ways, we greatly miss the thought and leadership of Deaconess. The Committee hope all the members of the branch will be present at this service, and many other young mothers who would like to know more about the Mothers' Union. Babies and young children can be cared for at the Rectory during the service.

6.—At the Dedication Festival, October 15th, the Rector will preach at 11 a.m.; the Rev. H. P. Bryant, Chaplain of Harrow School, at 6.30. At this service our three choirs will unite to lead the singing.

7.—Please send anything you can spare for the Rummage Sale on Monday, November 6th. Parcels can be sent to the Rectory; please label "Rummage."

8.—The fortnightly meetings of Mothers are commencing on Monday, October 2nd, 2.30 p.m., at the Institute.

St. John's Knitting Guild.—I am pleased to say the interest in the work of the Guild is as keen as ever, and the progress most satisfactory. Still believing in the old maxim "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," the members have been indulging in two very happy afternoons since my last insertion in the Magazine. On August 17th a large number of members spent a delightful afternoon in the Rectory Garden, being entertained by the Rector. A small whist drive was held, while others admired the beauty of the garden; after which all partook of a most enjoyable tea. Secondly, the members of the Guild, at their Thursday afternoon meeting, September 14th, entertained to tea the Rev. G. and Mrs. Binnie, accompanied by over 30 members of Holy Trinity Church, Tottenham, who were visiting St. John's Church and the Rectory garden that afternoon. An
