

Part of one of the laid-out Greens to be seen on Laings Estate

Land sufficient for 60 Shops has been reserved on the Estate itself, but three minutes' walk away and adjoining the Canons Park Station a representative Shopping Parade has been built. The housewife can also take advantage of the penny bus ride and enjoy the splendid and increasing number of good class shops in Edgware itself.

The Estate at present is in two sections. On the Canons Park section are detached and semi-detached houses ranging in price from £735 to £1,100, whilst the Honeypot Lane section has semi-detached houses from £630 to £735. All the houses are Freehold, with clean roads made up without charge to the Purchaser.

Residents, with children of a school age, have the choice of two Council schools and the erection of a third has been approved by the Council. There is also the Whitchurch Private School, with kindergarden and preparatory departments within a few minutes' walk.
