

STAFF

Headmaster: Mr. H. K. OLPHIN
Deputy Head: Mr. R. M. S. VICARY
Senior Mistress: Miss E. G. OYSTON

Mr. A. E. Andrews
 Mr. D. F. Bergin
 Mrs. H. Bonnett
 Mr. D. Bowker
 Miss A. Box
 Mrs. P. Butler
 Mr. R. K. N. Buttery
 Mr. K. G. Charles
 Mr. B. Grix
 Mr. M. Cugley
 Mr. D. R. Davies
 Mr. F. Denison
 Mr. K. F. Dunn
 Mr. K. K. Feldman
 Mr. A. P. Findlay
 Mr. J. Fuller
 Miss M. Garrett
 Mr. D. P. Gibbs
 Mrs. P. Gooch
 Mr. L. J. Green
 Mr. R. Hartley
 Mrs. V. House
 Miss B. A. Jenkins

PART-TIME STAFF

Mrs. M. Andison
 Mrs. M. M. Bristow

Secretary: Mrs. I. Playford
Assistant Secretary: Mrs. A. List
Laboratory Assistant: Mr. D. Fisher
School Keeper: Mr. J. Pitt
Head Boy: A. Lambell
Head Girl: C. Williams
Games Captain: K. Cusack

UPPER 6th
 D. Brown
 M. Large
 G. Parker
 B. Plumley
 C. Latham
 E. Salomon

LOWER 6th
 L. Barr
 I. Blackenough
 A. Bennett
 A. Durrant
 N. Gutteridge
 S. Harbert
 K. K. Meyer
 P. Naylor
 E. Perkin
 E. Rixon
 A. Trow

M. Wadley
 S. Walker
 V. Ware
 S. Yellog
 R. Brooker
 C. Buxton
 C. Cais
 R. Cook
 J. Day
 J. Ebdel
 P. Gobran

K. Harper
 K. Hyman
 B. Kenny
 C. Lendon
 W. Swanwick
 N. Thomas
 C. Thome
 S. Tobin
 K. Westbrook
 R. Young

THE
BLACKWELL SCHOOL
 MAGAZINE

Mr. J. D. THOMAS Editor
 ANNE BOZIER Asst. Editors
 SANDRA HERBERT
 NINA GUTTRIDGE
 Mr. C. WALKER Typographical Editor
 Mr. D. BOWKER Treasurer

July, 1964

YESTERDAY AT ASCOT

Yesterday, the first day of the Ascot meet, was a traditional English summer's day and with it came the year's inevitable crop of stylish umbrellas. Everybody had one, and they certainly look like being a big hit fashionwise this summer. They came in all shapes, sizes, colours and materials, but there were some of especial note. Lady Violet Mesh was looking somewhat damp under one that she said she made herself out of chicken wire—how clever she is with her teeth. The Hon. Mrs. Delilah Hay had one made from straw, but observed that "it gets awfully saggy, you know."

Most of the ladies wore floral print jeans and bikini tops, with little decoration except the ever popular tide-mark around the neck, whilst the men wore the traditional top-hat, roll neck sweater and 'Beattie' boots.

By 1 o'clock the rain had begun to ease off and everyone sank into the mud to have lunch. Picnic hampers emerged from the countless Rolls, Bentleys and Bubble cars, and a nearby Hamburger and Champagne vendor did a roaring trade. People at Ascot enjoy their luncheon, and witty conversation flourishes as